

Teacher notes

What do you prefer?

Language point

Comparative adjectives

Expressing preferences

I'd rather... than...

I prefer... to...

I don't like... as much as...

I like... more than...

Aim

To practise comparative adjectives and expressing preferences.

Activity

Students are presented with two things. They compare and/or express a preference for one or the other.

Organization

Pair work or group work.

Preparation

Make enough copies of the activity for the number of pairs/groups in your class.

Cut up the activity so that the two things to compare are on the same card.

What do I do?

- 1 Divide students into pairs or small groups.
- 2 Give each pair or group a set of cards face down on the table.
- 2 Students take it in turns to turn over a card and express a preference or make a comparison.

Cats

DOGS

reading a book

watching TV

playing cards

PLAYING CHESS

McDonalds

Burger
King

New York

London

pasta	rice
studying	working
The city	The country
Madonna	Jennifer Lopez
Emails	Letters

Sushi

Thai food

Pop music

RAP MUSIC

